

Use Case:	Sign Up
Primary Actor:	End-User
Goal in Context:	We want to allow users to sign up for our platform
Preconditions:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • User has an email address • The email used for sign up must not be in the database already. • A user must not be logged in
Trigger:	Select the register for account button on the home page
Scenario:	A new user navigates to the home page of the site. After seeing an interesting homepage describing what the site is like they decide to register for a new account.
Exceptions:	If they enter an email for a new account that has already been used, they receive an error message. If the requested password or email is empty they receive an error message.
Priority:	High